Insurance 4 That is about making insurance clear and simple with choices that are right for You. This Product Disclosure Statement ('PDS') tells You about the insurance cover for Your items in Your Home and when You take them anywhere in Australia. It explains Your cover, what happens in the event of a claim, and what You need to do when You insure with Us.

From time to time We will need to update this PDS. If the update results in a material change from the PDS You hold, we will send You another PDS or a supplementary PDS. You may request a copy of the PDS free of charge at any time by contacting Us.

It's important You read about Your cover so You choose the insurance that suits Your needs.

Your cover – Your choice

Everyone wants to protect different things. Insurance 4 That can be tailored to meet Your needs and to cover Your contents in a way, and for a price, that suits You. You can choose to insure these items when they are in Your Home, or in certain situations if You leave Home with them.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Limitations in cover

It is important that You read the PDS and Your Certificate to ensure that You understand what this Policy does and does not cover.

Insurance 4 That provides cover only in relation to loss or damage caused by certain Listed Events as set out in the 'Listed Events Cover'.

Insurance 4 That also only provides cover for the items of property that You have chosen to insure and are listed in the Certificate as the 'nominated property'. Insurance 4 That does not provide any cover for any legal liability incurred by You.

Who Your Policy covers

Your Policy covers You being the Policy Owner and any other person who is named on the Certificate as an insured.

If more than one person is named on the Certificate, We treat any statement, act, omission or claim by any of these people as a statement, act, omission or claim by all of these people.

What being a Policy Owner means

The Policy Owner is the person who will act on behalf of all people covered by the Policy. The Policy Owner can change or cancel this Policy, and is the only person We will send notices or other Policy information to. Any claim payments will be made to the Policy Owner.

What Your Policy covers

Insurance 4 That covers items of Nominated Property in Your Home for loss or damage caused by Listed Events.

If You want cover for items of Nominated Property away from Your Home (the Location shown on the Certificate), You can take out the Optional Extras of 'Theft cover anywhere in Australia' and/or 'Accidental Damage'.

Embargoes and special Policy conditions

You will not be covered for any loss or damage arising directly or indirectly from Storm, fire or Flood for the first 72 hours (or any longer period noted on the Certificate as the 'Embargo period') from the start of the Period of Insurance or from when You increase a sum insured or cover under the Policy unless:

- You have just bought the item of Nominated Property and the insurance is effective from the purchase date; or
- Your Policy replaced another policy covering the Nominated Property and there has been no break in cover.

Your Certificate will also show any other special conditions that apply to Your Policy.

Your sum insured

You must choose the amount You want to insure Your items of Nominated Property for. The amount for which You have insured Your items of Nominated Property is called the 'sum insured' and will be shown on the Certificate.

We pay up to the sum insured shown on the Certificate for each of Your items of Nominated Property.

It's important that You insure Your Nominated Property for its full new replacement value, including GST.

General Insurance Code of Practice

The purpose of the General Insurance Code of Practice (the Code) is to raise the standards of practice and service in the general insurance industry. The objectives of the Code are:

- a) to commit Us to high standards of service;
- b) to promote better, more informed relations between Us and You;
- c) to maintain and promote trust and confidence in the general insurance industry;
- d) to provide fair and effective mechanisms for the resolution of complaints and disputes between Us and You; and
- e) to promote continuous improvement of the general insurance industry through education and training.

We have adopted the Code and are committed to complying with it. Learn more about the Code at www.codeofpractice.com.au or contact Us.

Things You need to tell Us

You must advise Us if there is any change relating to the Nominated Property or the nature of the risk including if Your Home will be unoccupied for more than 60 consecutive days. We may cancel or change the terms of Your Policy if Your circumstances change.

Changes to Your Policy

If You wish to change any details of Your Policy You must contact Us at <https://nrma.insurance4that.com.au/>. If We accept the changes, We will provide You with an updated Certificate that will confirm the change and advise You of any additional Premium payable for such change. If You do not pay the extra Premium You may not be covered in the event of a claim. If the changes reduce Your Premium, We will refund the amount owing to You. We will tell You if We can't accept the changes and why.

Premium

If We accept Your application for this insurance, You must pay the Premium shown on the Certificate for this Policy.

How We calculate Your Premium

We determine Your Premium by considering a number of factors including but not limited to the location of Your Home and the type and amount of cover You require. Factors that increase the risk to Us generally increase the Premium (e.g. higher sum insured) and those that lower the risk generally reduce the Premium (e.g. lower sum insured). If You have any queries about this, You can ask Us.

Your Premium also includes amounts that take into account Our obligation (actual or in some cases estimated) to pay any relevant compulsory government charges, taxes or levies (for example, stamp duty, GST and emergency services levy).

Your Premium amount together with the amount of all individual charges, taxes or levies will be shown on the Certificate.

Paying Your Premium

You can pay Your Premium annually or by monthly, fortnightly or weekly instalments.

If You pay Your Premium by instalments:

- a) You must pay Your Premium instalment by the due date;
- b) and Your financial institution declines Our direct debit request, You may be charged a dishonour fee;
- c) an instalment is considered unpaid if it is dishonoured, rejected, not received or We are otherwise unable to deduct it from the nominated payment card or account;
- d) and You do not pay the first instalment by the due date, then We will give You written notice to cancel Your policy in accordance with the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth);
- e) if any instalment other than the first instalment is unpaid:
 - i. for one month after its due date, Your Policy will be automatically cancelled at the end of that one-month period; and
 - ii. for 14 days or more after its due date, We will refuse a claim for any loss or damage that occurs 14 days or more after the due date; and
- f) if We offer to renew Your insurance, You must pay the renewal Premium instalment by the due date set out in the Certificate provided. If You do not pay this renewal Premium instalment, Your Policy will end.

If You pay by annual Premium:

- a) You must pay your premium by the due date shown on your Certificate;
- b) if We offer to renew Your insurance, You must pay the renewal Premium by the due date set out on the Certificate provided. If You do not pay the renewal Premium, Your Policy will end.

Unpaid premiums

If You pay Your Premium by instalments, then before We pay any claim We will deduct:

- a) any Premiums that are due but haven't been paid; and
- b) all upcoming Premium instalments between the date of the claim and the end of your Period of Insurance.

Renewing Your Policy

To ensure that Your Policy provides continuous protection, at least 14 days prior to expiry of Your Policy We will tell You whether We are prepared to offer You renewal of Your Policy and, if so, on what terms. If We offer to renew Your Policy We will provide You with details of the Premium and excess for the renewal period and any changes to the terms of the Policy.

If You wish to renew Your Policy and We have offered this, We do not require You to do anything as We will deduct / charge the renewal Premium from Your nominated account / payment card. If You do not wish to renew Your Policy You must contact Us prior to the renewal date and advise Us of this.

If You receive a renewal offer from Us, You must check all of the information and tell Us if any of the information is incorrect or incomplete. If You do not tell Us, We may reduce or refuse to pay a claim.

If We will not offer to renew Your Policy, We will tell You at least 14 days prior to Your Policy expiring.

Excess

Your excess is the amount You must contribute towards each item of Nominated Property You make a claim for under this Policy. If You make a claim, You will have to pay the excess(es) that applies to Us or a repairer or supplier. We will tell You who to pay the excess(es) to.

We will advise You of the amount of the excess(es) at the time of Your application for Your Policy and Your excess(es) will be shown on the Certificate.

The excess will vary depending on the type of Nominated Property insured. The amount of the applicable excess will be shown on Your current Certificate. You cannot pay to remove an excess.

Cooling off and cancelling Your Policy

You have 21 days (the 'cooling off' period) after You purchase this Policy to change Your mind and tell Us that You want to cancel the Policy. We will refund Your Premium so long as You have not made a claim.

You may cancel Your Policy at any time by contacting Us. Your cancellation will be effective from the date You request the cancellation or a later date You request. If You are paying by instalment, We will not charge You any further instalments from the time You cancel Your Policy, but We will not refund any instalment Premiums already paid. You will also be required to pay any Premium amount outstanding at the time of cancellation. If You have paid Your Premium by annual payment, We will refund Your Premium for the period after cancellation.

We may only cancel Your Policy in accordance with the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) including but not limited to if You do not comply with Your Policy terms and conditions. If We cancel Your Policy, We will inform You in writing and refund Your Premium for the period after cancellation.

Goods & Services Tax (GST)

All the benefits listed in this Policy include GST. If We cash settle Your claim, Our claim payment will be based on a GST inclusive cost. However, if You are or would be entitled to claim any input tax credits for Your Nominated Property, We will reduce any claim by the amount of such input tax credits. If You are entitled to any input tax credit, You must tell Us the extent of Your entitlement.

All dollar values described in this PDS include GST and are in Australian dollars.

Financial Claims Scheme

You may be entitled to payment under the Financial Claims Scheme in the event that Insurance Australia Limited becomes insolvent. Access to the scheme is subject to eligibility criteria. Information about the scheme can be obtained from <http://www.fcs.gov.au>.

Claim and excess payment examples

The following examples are designed to show how a claim payment might be calculated and what amount You may be required to pay. These are examples only, they do not cover all scenarios or benefits and do not form part of the Policy terms and conditions.

Claim example 1 – loss or damage to Nominated Property – replacement and repair

You insure a number of items as Nominated Property including a refrigerator with a sum insured of $2,000, a laptop with a sum insured of $3,500, a television with a sum insured of $2,000 and a microwave with a sum insured of $450. An excess of $50 individually applies to the refrigerator, the television and the microwave. An excess of $150 applies to the laptop.

Your laptop, television and microwave are stolen and Your refrigerator is damaged when the burglars attempt to steal it during a burglary at Your Home. We accept Your claim and assess the cost to repair the refrigerator to be $500. A supplier confirms that the laptop can be replaced with a similar laptop for $3,500, the television can be replaced with a similar television for $2,000 and the microwave can be replaced by the same model microwave for $400.

We arrange for a repairer to repair the refrigerator, and the supplier to replace Your laptop for $3,500, television for $2,000 and microwave with the same model for $400. We pay the repairer $500 to repair the refrigerator and pay the supplier $5,900 to supply the laptop, television and microwave. You would pay Us $300 representing the $50 excess for each of the refrigerator, the television and microwave and $150 excess for the laptop.

Claim example 2 – loss or damage to Nominated Property – replacement

You insure a number of items as Nominated Property including a television with a sum insured of $1,900. An excess of $50 applies to the television.

Your television is destroyed in a fire at Your Home. We accept Your claim and You agree to accept a store credit in settlement of the claim. We provide you with a store credit for $1,850. The applicable excess of $50 has been deducted from the store credit.

Claim example 3 – loss or damage to Nominated Property – away from Your Home

You insure a number of items as Nominated Property including a television with a sum insured of $1,500, a laptop with a sum insured of $3,000 and a microwave with a sum insured of $450. Your Home (the Location shown on Your Certificate) is Your room at the university college where You live during semester time. No Optional Extras are listed on Your Certificate. An excess of $50 individually applies to the television and the microwave. An excess of $150 applies to the laptop.

Your laptop is stolen from Your locked parents’ house while You are staying with them during university holidays. You report the theft to the police.

You are not covered under this policy as the laptop was not at Your Home (the Location listed on the Certificate) at the time of the theft and therefore We will not accept Your claim and no amount is payable to You in relation to the laptop.

If you had ‘Theft cover anywhere in Australia’ listed on Your Certificate, the laptop would have been covered under this Optional Extra while away from Your university room. If you had the ‘Theft cover anywhere in Australia’ listed on Your Certificate and We accepted Your claim, We would have:

- a) replaced the laptop with a laptop of the same or similar type and quality and You would have paid Us the $150 excess; or

- b) paid You a cash settlement of the amount it would cost Us to replace the laptop with a laptop of the same or similar type and quality less the $150 excess.

If the 'Theft anywhere in Australia' optional extra is available for the particular item of Nominated Property and You elect to take this optional extra for the item, the item of Nominated Property will be listed on the Certificate as covered for 'Theft cover anywhere in Australia'.

All other terms, conditions and exclusions of this Policy shall apply to this optional extra.

Accidental Damage

If 'Accidental Damage' cover is shown on the Certificate, in addition to the 'Listed Events cover' We will also cover Your items of Nominated Property listed on the Certificate as covered for 'Accidental Damage' for Accidental Damage occurring anywhere in Australia during the Period of Insurance.

All other terms, conditions and exclusions of this Policy shall apply to this optional extra.

- a) that is covered under another policy of insurance but only to the extent permitted by law; or
- b) failure of any items which reach the end of their functional life; or
- c) caused because the building in which the item was kept was not in good condition.

How We will pay Your claim and what We will pay

If We agree to cover Your claim for loss or damage to Nominated Property under this Policy, We will (at Our option):

You must pay the excess that applies to each item of Nominated Property You claim for under any section of this Policy.

The maximum amount We will pay for any item of Nominated Property in any claim is the sum insured for that item, which is stated on Your Certificate.

If We agree to pay You a cash settlement to replace an item of Nominated Property under a claim, the full annual Premium for that item is payable by You prior to settlement if it has not already been paid in full (or will be deducted by Us from any cash settlement) and the cover for that item will come to an end.

If We arrange a replacement for an item of Nominated Property or You replace it following receipt of a cash settlement, the replacement item will not be insured under this Policy. You will need to arrange insurance cover for this new item if required.

If an incident occurs that causes loss or damage, We may proceed in Your name against any party responsible for the loss or damage and You must not do anything which limits Our right to do so.

If We have paid a claim for an item of Nominated Property the ownership of the Nominated Property becomes ours.

Should an item of Nominated Property that We have paid a claim for subsequently be found or returned You must immediately contact Us as We may arrange collection. This does not apply to any repaired Nominated Property.
